Dear [investor],

Important notice to all clients with a Verdant investment:

A company called Mulvey & Hanson are purporting to be a legitimate law firm in Boston, USA and have offered one of our clients cash in exchange for his shares in Verdant (GAS Global), as long as he provides full bank details. Our client has also been hassled by the company by telephone. On investigation, this is a fraudulent company and as such we have reported it to the FCA. Please ignore any and all communication from this company and notify us if you receive such.

Yours faithfully

Angela Murphy
